

What's New with Services?

The Family Service has been renamed, and is now called the Generational Service. It remains family friendly.

The very popular Contemporary Confessions Service will now require a ticket and is a part of the Afternoon Service.

High Holy Days

Beth Israel invites you to worship with us!

August 2017

Dear Friends,

There are moments in life where everything changes. When that happens - whether at a societal level or a personal one - the question to ask is: will we be ready for the opportunities and challenges that become available to us?

This is perhaps why we have our High Holy Days season. When we come together, we do so as the most prosperous, safest, and most powerful minority of Jews in any land of our diaspora. The High Holy Days offer us the chance to ask: what have we done with the Judaism that we are free to live? Has it guided us as we look out at our troubled world, and nation, and as we seek to understand our obligations (as individuals and members of a faith community) towards others?

On the personal level: If you open your eyes to the beauty of our faith, it can help you with the big questions of life and their meaning. Do we allow our tradition to guide us as we seek to understand how to be good and bring goodness into our life and the lives of those around us? How can Judaism help us enhance what we know is the holiness and goodness of life? If life has become bitter; how can Judaism lift us out of our depths? What does Judaism tell us about the full meaning of being kind, caring, loving, and good? That's what most of us wish to be; and Judaism offers many paths towards that kind of fulfilled life.

This year we will be led in prayer and study with a new clergy team. While unique, they each bring a passion for you and the life you are trying to live well with all your might. By joining in enthusiasm and joy together we can set the course for a year of life, blessing, and goodness. May you come away after the holidays with some good ideas about how Judaism is going to help you be better this coming year.

There is a verse from Song of Songs, "The Voice of My Beloved Knocks." In the Song, the Beloved knocks, but the lover is not ready and offers excuses for not answering. Eventually the Beloved turns away and is gone...this teaches us about the importance of being ready for the knock.

Our beloved High Holy Days will be knocking soon... please be ready to answer by joining your community in warm, loving, and uplifting prayer and celebration.

Ticket Process

Please complete the enclosed Ticket Request Form and return it to Beth Israel at your earliest convenience by mail, email to Edie Winchester at ewinchester@cbisd.org, by fax at (858) 900-2502, hand delivery to Beth Israel, online at www.cbisd.org, or by phone at (858) 535-1111. Tickets can also be acquired the day of services at the Solutions Table in the Price Family Courtyard. You may also request and purchase tickets online at <https://cbisd.org/worship/high-holy-days/>

Please indicate your service preferences and the number of members in your family - including children - who will attend each service. Your service selections will be used for Beth Israel's planning purposes. Every individual will need his or her own ticket. If your child requires a seat, he or she will require a ticket.

Ticket(s) included in your membership will be valid for all services and times. Any updated service or parking information will be sent with your tickets.

We are pleased to offer complimentary tickets for active-duty military personnel & their dependents, full time college students through age 26, and guest tickets for members of the Ner Tamid Circle (formerly Century Club) based on level.

Not yet a member? Membership has its privileges, and the cost of tickets can be upgraded to a membership. Contact Membership Director Bethany Eisenberg at beisenberg@cbisd.org or (858) 900-2554, and join the Beth Israel community.

Memorial Book

Memory is a precious gift. At Beth Israel we honor the memory of family members and other departed loved ones by including their names in the Memorial Book that is distributed preceding the Yizkor service on Yom Kippur.

Additional information is provided with this packet.

Please return your submission in the enclosed envelope, or you may submit online at www.cbisd.org.

Submissions must be received by Monday, August 28, 2017 to be included in the Memorial Book.

For questions regarding the Memorial Book, please contact Janice Schuffman at jschuffman@cbisd.org or (858) 535-1111.

Childcare

Complimentary childcare will be available in the Bill and Sid Rubin Preschool for children ages 2-6 on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur from 8:00 to 11:30 a.m. Pre-registration is required. A registration form is enclosed. You can also download the Childcare Reservation Form online at www.cbisd.org. For additional information, contact our Preschool Office at (858) 900-2531.

Wheelchair/ Disabled Access

If you need special accommodations for a disability, please contact Liz Levine at LLevine@cbisd.org or (858) 900-2525. For all other High Holy Day inquiries, and assistance with tickets, please contact Edie Winchester at ewinchester@cbisd.org or (858) 535-1111, ext. 2515
