A MESSAGE FROM RABBI JASON NEVAREZ

Dear Friends,

In our Yizkor service, we say "Yizkor Elohim Nishmat" and ask that God remember the soul of our loved one. When we recite these words, we are also asking God to help us, those of us reciting Yizkor, to cope with our pain, process our loss, and move forward with our lives.

On Yom Kippur we take a sacred pause to remember those we have loved and lost. We do not close the book on their lives. Instead we are given a mitzvah, a task; to begin writing another chapter in that book worthy of our loved ones, who were such an inspiration to us.

Today, we celebrate their lives. Then, with renewed energy, we make sure that the lessons they taught with their lives – about hope, about the will to live, about the beauty of the world around us – these lessons are not forgotten but, instead, become part of the curriculum we teach our children and our children's children.

With our Kaddish prayer and this Memorial book we acknowledge those who influenced us, those who taught us, those who imparted their values and wisdom to us, those who touched us with their love. Yizkor awakens our memories and our loved ones enter the room and return to us and bless our lives.

May we all have the opportunity to be there for one another in our times of need. May we always cherish the memories of our loved ones who have passed, and may their memories always endure and inspire for a blessing.

L' Shanah Tovah,

Rabbi Jason Nevarez

PSALM 23

מִזְמוֹר לְדָוִד. יְיָ רֹעִי, לֹא אֶחְסָר. בִּנְאוֹת דֶּשֶׁא
יַרְבִּיצֵנִי, עַל־מֵי מְנֻחוֹת יְנַהֲלֵנִי. נַפְשִׁי יְשׁוֹבֵב. יַנְחֵנִי
בְּמַעְגְּלֵי־צֶדֶק לְמַעַן שְׁמוֹ. גַּם כִּי־אֵלֵךְ בְּגֵיא צַלְמָוֶת
לֹא־אִירָא רָע, כִּי־אַתָּה עִמָּדִי; שִׁבְטְךָ וּמִשְׁעַנְתֶּךָ
הֵמָּה יְנַחֲמֻנִי. תַּעֲרֹךְ לְפָנַי שֻׁלְחָן נֶגֶד צֹרְרָי. דִּשַּׁנְתָּ
בַשֶּׁמֶן רֹאשִׁי, כּוֹסִי רְוָיָה. אַךְ טוֹב וָחֶסֶד יִרְדְּפוּנִי כָּל־יְמֵי חַיָּי, וְשַׁבְתִּי בְּבֵית־יְיָ לְאֹרֶךְ יָמִים.

Eternal God, You are my shepherd, I shall not want.
You make me lie down in green pastures.
You lead me beside still waters. You restore my soul.
You lead me in the right paths for the sake of Your name.
Even when I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil, for You are with me; with rod and staff You comfort me.
You have set a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You have anointed my head with oil, my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Eternal God for ever.

Let the glory of God be extolled and God's great name be hallowed in the world whose creation God willed. May God rule in our own day, in our own lives, and in the life of all Israel, and let us say: Amen.
Let God's great name be blessed for ever and ever.
Beyond all the praises, songs, and adorations that we can utter is the Holy One,
the Blessed One, whom yet we glorify, honor, and exalt. And let us say: Amen.
For us and for all Israel, may the blessing of peace and the promise of life come true and let us say: Amen.
May the One who causes peace to reign in the high heavens, cause peace to reign among us, all Israel, and all the world, and let us say: Amen.

A KADDISH INTERPRETATION

May God's name be sanctified and praised. Amen.
May God's design for this world,
for us and our people,
lead us to justice and good.
May God, who has decreed that all who live must die, teach us to accept death,
yet with all our hearts desire life.
May God, whose plan for us is sometimes hidden, reveal the way to become stronger,
having faced the trials of life.
And may God,
Oseh Ha-Shalom, be for us a source of comfort, strength, and peace.
And let us say, Amen.

Sally Nalven

BIRTH IS A BEGINNING

Birth is a beginning
And death a destination.
And life is a journey;
From childhood to maturity
And youth to age;
From innocence to knowing;
From foolishness to discretion
And then, perhaps, to wisdom;
From health to sickness
And back, we pray, to health again;
From offense to forgiveness,
From loneliness to love,
From joy to gratitude,
From pain to compassion,
And grief to understanding
From fear to faith;
From defeat to defeat to defeat –
Until, looking backward or ahead,
We see that victory lies
Not at some high place along the way
But in having made the journey,
Stage by stage,
A sacred pilgrimage.
Birth is the beginning
And death a destination.
And life is a journey,
A sacred pilgrimage –
To life everlasting.

KADDISH IS . . .

Kaddish is the profound praise of the living,
Praise for the generous gift of life.
Praise for the presence of loved ones,
the bonds of friendship,
the link of memory.
Praise for the toil and searching,
the dedication and vision,
the ennobling aspirations.
Praise for the precious moorings of faith,
for the courageous souls,
for prophets, psalmists, and sages.
Praise for those who walked before us,
the sufferers in the valley of shadows,
the steadfast in the furnace of hate.
Kaddish is praise for the God of our people,
the Source of all growth and goodness,
the promise on which we build tomorrow.

THE ORIGINS OF THE KADDISH

The origins of the Kaddish are mysterious; angels are said to have brought it down from heaven.

It possesses wonderful power. Truly, if there is any bond strong enough to chain heaven to earth, it is this prayer. It keeps the living together, and forms a bridge to the mysterious realm of the dead. One might almost say that this prayer is the guardian of the people by whom alone it is uttered; therein lies the warrant of its continuance. Can a people disappear and be annihilated so long as a child remembers its parents?

Because this prayer does not acknowledge death, because it permits the blossom, which has fallen from the tree of humankind, to flower and develop again in the human heart, it possesses sanctifying power.

Leopold Kompert, Austrian novelist, (1822-1886)

THE KRIAH SCULPTURE AT CONGREGATION BETH ISRAEL

Kriah is the rending of cloth, symbolic of tearing one's clothing upon hearing of the death of a loved one. To experience such a loss is to feel as if our hearts are torn. Our Jewish tradition gives us a gift in this ritual – a way to outwardly express what we are feeling internally when the tragedy of death touches our lives.

It was this image of torn fabric and torn hearts that inspired artist Laurie Gross to develop the Kriah sculpture as a Holocaust memorial. Made of weathered COR-TEN© steel, the sculpture sits adjacent to Beth Israel's Foster Family Chapel and suggests the giant tear in action. A base of Jerusalem stone contains the inscription, "For Hearts That Are Torn We Shall Always Remember" A multitude of stones remember the six million who perished.

Laurie says, "To fully experience the piece you must imagine the sound of cloth tearing...a hundred times...a thousand times...six million times... it tears through your senses of sight and sound." Laurie was particularly moved in her research by the words of Russian poet, Yevgeny Yevtushenko, who spoke of the wild grasses rustling over the site at Babi Yar where more than 100,000 people were massacred in 1941. The long-tufted grasses at the base of our Kriah sculpture were chosen to represent those grasses and the renewal of life they represent.

Beth Israel's Kriah sculpture and its maintenance are a gift from the Men's Club. Donations received from the annual sale of Yom HaShoah candles distributed by the Men's Club support these and other Holocaust-related projects.

It is hard to sing of oneness when the world is not complete, when those who once brought wholeness to our life have gone, and naught but memory can fill the emptiness their passing leaves behind.

But memory can tell us only what we were,
in company with those we loved;
it cannot help us find what each of us, alone, must now become.
Yet no one is really alone:
those who live no more, echo still within our thoughts and words, and what they did is part of what we have become.

We do best homage to our dead when we live our lives more fully, even in the shadow of our loss.
For each of our lives is worth the life of the whole world;
in each one is the breath of the Ultimate One.
In affirming the One, we affirm the worth of each one whose life, now ended, brought us closer to the Source of life, in whose unity no one is alone and every life finds purpose.

- Richard Levy

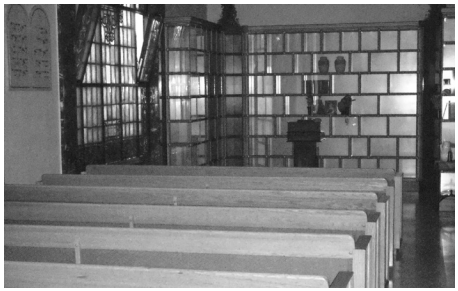
Mount of Olives Memorial Lawns

Beth Israel owns burial space at El Camino Memorial Park in Sorrento Valley, which we call Mount of Olives Lawn. Our lawn is a sacred place of tranquility and solace providing a comforting burial place in accordance with Jewish custom.

Home of Peace Corridors at Cypress View

Home of Peace Corridors offers families wall crypt choices in individual, tandem companion and side-by-side companion arrangements.

The Sol Stone Memorial Chapel, with its own entrance, provides a private and peaceful place for the recitation of prayers or for holding a funeral service.



Give your family peace of mind

Beth Israel's Cemetery & Mausoleum (C&M) Association is here to help you.

When death occurs, the emotional challenges can overwhelm anyone. Pre-planning and purchasing cemetery property is an act of love that spares family members difficult decisions during their time of grief. In addition, you avoid escalating costs and make your personal wishes known.

Beth Israel C&M Association can help with pre-arranged in-ground burial plots, wall crypts for caskets, and niches. Pre-need discounts are available. For information without obligation, call Cemetery & Mausoleum Representative Stuart Simmons at 619 871-4160.

Property at El Camino and Cypress View is fully protected by Endowment Care - State supervised funds, which assure the constant upkeep and maintenance of these facilities.
