Important Parking Information

- For all of Rosh Hashanah and on Kol Nidre, parking will be available in the Gateway Parking Structure with entrances through the Beth Israel main parking lot off of Goldenhaven Drive, and off of Towne Centre Drive. The arms will be up as you enter the Gateway Parking Structure. Please allow extra time due to ongoing construction and lane closures due to the San Diego Pure Water Program Installation near the Beth Israel campus. Alternative routes are listed on the reverse side.
- Parking is also available at the UTC Mall for all services, however, parking rates will apply. Beth Israel does not reimburse for mall parking.
- On Yom Kippur only very limited parking will be available in the Gateway Parking Structure. Please enter the Gateway parking structure through the Beth Israel main parking lot off of Goldenhaven Drive. Entry into the Gateway parking structure will not be allowed off of Towne Centre Drive.
- Overflow parking will only be available on Yom Kippur, Monday, September 25, and will be supported by a free shuttle service. Overflow parking is located at One La Jolla Center on Judicial Drive. Please park on the two lowest levels of the garage. A Beth Israel representative will be there to direct traffic and will guide you to where the shuttle pick-up will be. Additional routes and a detailed map is on the reverse side.
- For those with disabled parking placards, there is limited parking in Beth Israel's main parking lot off of Golden Haven Drive.
- Again, please allow extra time due to ongoing construction and lane closures due to the San Diego Pure Water Program Installation near the Beth Israel campus. Alternative routes are listed on the reverse side.
